Joanne,
I hope I spelled your name right. I didn't get to see you to much this year. Till I got 2nd lunch. It's been fun playing cards and immitating the
and only, Billy, and Burgi!
Have a wonderful summer
and I hope we have some classes together next year or lunch or something. Do you realize we haven't had any classes together since 5th grade?
Well, I'm running out of room so be good (if you don't, I'll pull your plug!) God Bless you!

A smile is just a frown turned up-side down.

Smiling faces, smiling faces, sometimes they don't tell the truth . . A smile . . sexy shy . . sparkling . . crooked small . . happy . . coy . . big mysterious . . talking . . evil.

1. Class pictures are always enjoyed by all students, since time is taken out of the underclassmen's English classes. Frank Myers gives a sexy smile to the photographer as he gets his class picture taken. 2. Winning isn't everything, but it sure makes a person happy as we see Mark Wavrek beaming as he finishes creaming a P.V. player across the field. 3. "Look mom no cavities" was on Susie Gerhart's mind when she drew this big smile. 4. Instead of "whistling while he works", Jesse Parker smiles while he picks up trash after a Frosh football game Saturday morning.

5. Paul Hammond lazily munches on popcorn, at a rainy football game, while gazing at Diane Gould who pretends not to see him. 6. Diane Gould suddenly becomes friendly towards Paul when other females notice him. Paul has no complaints about this shower of attention, in fact he rather enjoys it. 7. Leslie Talmage beams exuberantly as Rincon wins another game.

School Life . . . Boring, fun, exciting, busy, unique, work, necessary, easy, hard, important.

1. Robin Wall and Paul Inman along with the other members of "Eight Grand" provide rock music for Rincon's first mixer which was held outside. This dance was sponsored by the lettermen and received a good turnout. 2. Mayor James Corbett converses with Dr. Harmon Harrison while visiting the American Problems class to express their views on various phases of city government. They, like many other candidates in the city election, came to Rincon during the campaign. 3. Friends help junior Ellen Shdanov celebrate her sixteenth birthday by covering her locker with a cleverly constructed sign. Through the course of the school year, it's common to see many similar signs covering lockers. 4. Kathy Spargur, passing the time by being thrown around at an after-game mixer, finds it to be an interesting experience. This mixer, sponsored by the band, was the only after-game dance.

1. Slyly deceiving the registrars on Senior Day, Mike Moore signs up to receive a free football ticket for the Utah-Arizona game. 2. Jim Weathers finds the pinball machine more fascinating than the planned agenda for students at Senior Day. 3. Brian McLusick, senior at the U. of A. and student teacher for Mr. Beimers' American Problems and history classes joins many high school students taking advantage of the Senior Day program at the U. of A. 4. Standing on tip toes, varsity cheerleader Theresa Edris encourages thundering participation from the crowd while songleader Elvia Ezrre assists her. 5. Enthusiastic seniors Brenda Albritton, Debbie Friske, and Connie Humphrey contribute their pep to help boost the Rincon spirit at the fall assembly. 6. Nancy Anderson and friend Carol McIntyre listen attentively to an administrator from N.A.U. speaking on various courses offered there.

ELECTIONS!

1. Although gifted spaghetti eaters are hard to find, Lee Lazarow and Mike Matz show budding talents in eating the Italian pasta, during the choir's third annual Spaghetti Dinner. 2. Miriam Doyle lifts her eyebrows in amazement as Lee and Mike wolf down their second plates of spaghetti. 3. Elections were held in October instead of last May, because of lack of interest and enthusiasm of the student body. 4-5. Quickly painting before the class change, a painter gives the inside of Rincon a brighter look.

1. Although the controversial subject of religion is considered taboo elsewhere, Rincon students were given a chance to express their viewpoints at the ECHO-sponsored Religion Forum. Tony Celaya, Phil Lupo, and Matt Lovinger listen to the opinion of another student.
2. Thursday night Young Life activities include singing as well as the usual skits, speakers, and conversation with friends. Campaigners clubs also constitute the nationwide Young Life Inc. program. Specifically, these groups of girls or boys meet every week for Bible study.

3. Rincon graduate Debbie Smith and senior Andy Hoffman relax in the few minutes before the meeting begins. 4. A skit presented by a Campaigners club receives varied reactions like those of Peggy Thorpe, sophomore, and senior Keith Timm. 5. The director of Young Life in Tucson, Mr. Charlie Bowles, explains the purpose of the organization during a weekly talk session. With the help of volunteers, this program provides an introduction to the spiritual aspects of high school life.

1. Paul Hammond attempts a basket while the crowd, with applauding hands and anxious expressions, urges on the victory-bound Rangers. 2. Miriam Doyle symbolizes the enthusiasm reflected by the fans throughout the game. 3-4. On the bench, synchronized leg crossing further displays the Rangers' teamwork.

I avoid thinking about school...

I can't think of anything printable to say...

Everything I learned last year. I unlearned this year...

Everyone has "senioritis" including the freshmen...

Sometimes I feel like I go to school eight days a week...

Too bad we caught "Spring Fever" in November...

It was something I'll remember...

Joanne:
These phrases seem to fit us awfully good. Especially the 1st, 4th, 5th, 7th, 9th, and 11th. There are a lot of others in the other column. Now if you think this the end of these remarks well go to page 15.

Below: Quarterback Bill Newland gets last minute instructions from coach Andy Rumic after battling to a 13-13 deadlock at half time. In the last seconds, time ran short and the Rangers went home losers to Pueblo. Due to later investigation by the A.I.A., Pueblo had to forfeit their win to the Rangers for having an ineligible player. Below right: Varsity halfback Jesse Parker scrambles for first down yardage against Salpointe. Rushing 120 yards on 18 carries, Jesse had one of his best games of the season. Rincon, on an off night, fell to Salpointe 46-14.

"Form and posture help me a lot. . ."

George Jacome

After the '71 season coaches Morris Schmeider and Jim Hansen may well be picking the grey from their hair. Dismally starting off with three losses, hopes for the baby Rangers necessarily dropped. However, the offense finally jelled; and Rincon took the winning road against Palo Verde. Continuing a good thing with Sahuaro, hopes soared for a 5-4 winning season, but this was not to be. Freshmen lost all remaining games ending the season 2-7 with a squeaker against Amphi. Just 40 seconds from their third victory they allowed the Panthers to score and rob them of the destination. Bright spot for the Rangers was Steve Fuller. Running consistantly well from his halfback spot, he established himself as a key weapon in the purple offense.

The season proved to be a successful one for the Rincon J.V. football team. The Rangers started the season against Pueblo which ended up in a tie 22-22. The J.V. went on to defeat Salpointe, Catalina, Palo Verde, and tied Tucson Above: Dave Millikan, offensive center blocks a Catalina defender in a game the Rangers won 28-8. Millikan, a transfer from New York, played very well for Rincon during the season. Dave was unable to play the last game of the season because of a bad illness. Left: Grudgingly giving ground to a hard-charging Sahuaro runner, Ranger Doug Hannum leads the pack at their J.V. meet early in the season. Rincon lost this one badly, but went on to a winning 6-1 season.

0-0. After five games of regular season, their record was 3-0-2. Rincon faced another undefeated team, when they confronted Sahuaro 5-0. Trouncing Sahuaro, Rincon received its first lose from Sunnyside 14-12. Rincon then went onto meet Douglas, and revenged the Sunnyside game by beating the Bulldogs 14-7. The last game championed once more 22-8. The J.V. season record ended up 6-1-2. Some outstanding players of the team were Kurt Hough, John Whitley, Art Vasquez, and Dan Smith. Other good players were Darrell Kersey, Mark Hagedon, Rene Mares, and Ruben Ramirez

Against all newspaper predictions, Rincon rolled over Amphi 26-13, salvaging a 2-2 league record and homecoming victory. Down 13-17 at the half, things looked bad for the Rangers. However, the defense stayed strong, playing near perfect ball all night, and the purple offense put it together, allowing no costly mistakes. Quarterback Tim Vesley put on a show for home fans scoring two big touchdowns for the Rangers. One especially outstanding was a 30 yard romp on a quarterback sneak to clinch the victory. Also distinguishing himself this season was Jessie Parker, rushing 117 yards to top 1000 yards during the season. Traditionally, a senior pushed it out of reach of Amphi, as Bruce Hitchye intercepted to halt the Panther's final effort to score. For the sixth straight year Tucson has downed the Rangers to continue the furious rivalry between the two schools. Walkingover Rincon 36-14, the Red Machine continued to dominate the AAA league. Out weighed ten pounds a man, the Rangers grudgingly gave ground. The first score came early in the first quarter when the Badgers punched their way to score in eight bruising plays. The main complaint ot the defense was too many open field tackles. Rincon's Rick Lucero and Ben Wilson helped to remedy the problem by plugging the gap down field.

The Varsity Cross Country team ran up a record of 5-2 this fall, bringing them to fifth place in divisional competition. Runners Gary Faulkenberry, Matt Goodman, Eric Grossman, George Jacome, and Joe Thorpe were responsible for the achievements during this winning season. Gary Faulkenberry's 14th place award and George Jacome's 28th place in the divisional meet were high points of the season. Jacome also captured seventh place in the Squaw Peak Invitational, outlasting some 600 other runners.

J.V. Cross Country complied a 6-1 record this season, equaling Sahuaro's score in the city meet. Next year's potential varsity runners are Chaco Vargas, Jay Dunn, who finished seventh in a divisional contest, and Gerald Molinar, who also ended with a winning record.

A 5-3 record was earned by the Frosh Cross Country team. Baby Rangers captured a fifth place prize for themselves with prominent runners, Jerry Gillette and Mike Naifeh placing in divisionals.

Above: Split end Bruce Hitchye tries desperately to catch Tim Veseley's pass during the Catalina game. Bruce was named on the 2nd team all-city squad upon completion of the season. Right: Tim Veseley squats dejectedly after failing to move the ball during the first half of the Rincon-Amphi game, which ended 13-6. Coach Andy Rumic's halftime talk inspired the team to a come from behind victory over the Panthers, 26-13.

Allen scored how many points!!?

The future of Rincon's basketball teams looks bright, if this year's success is any indication. Baby Rangers, led by Hunter Nash and Dave Henson, compiled a 13-5 record and tied for first place in the city tourney. Nash and Henson topped team scoring with respective game averages of 16 and 21. Tucson High School provided the most disappointing contests for freshmen, with scores of 48-44 and 59-55. Mr. Phil Varney returned to coach this winning season.

"The J.V. Ranger's season was made up of the desire to play and win. Their impatience to play and win made for the constant striving in their learning stages. The Rangers always gave 110 percent in practice and were always up for the games." The words of Coach Jim Hansen reflected the tone of the somewhat disappointing J.V. season. Rincon tallied a 12-7 record with losses hitting hard because of the closeness of scores and the degree of competition. Near season's end, the team started to play consistent ball, pulling five consecutive games. The second in city finish was surpassed only by Tucson High. Outstanding players were Mike Reynolds, Dave Wolters and Greg Hoxie.

Arizona's leading scorer, senior Gary Allen, accumulated a total of 557 in the 71-72 year to break former records and carry the Rincon cage team to AAA Divisionals with a 19-1 season. The 6'1" guard received most of the honors given Rangers, as he was named captain of the all-tournament, all-state, and both all-city teams. Allen amazed audiences with game scores that ranged from 12 points against Amphi to 49 against Palo Verde. Hitting 84% from the free throw line, he sank 30 of 30 attempts at the Southern Divisionals Tournament and surpassed Tourney scoring marks.

A great deal of Rincon's success was due to the steady efforts of second year starter Paul Hammond. Hammond was responsible for keeping the ball at the Ranger goal and setting it up for other shooters. Center Steve Dosh also served as a vital cog in the team's offense, setting up the ball, and helping control the boards for the Rangers. A 6'5" junior center, Lou Tapley, became a major defensive threat to offensive moves during the late season drive for state victory. Tapley is the only one of five staters returning next year. Rich Rowan, a senior guard, was an outstanding player, too, though never a high scorer. Senior sixth-man Bruce Cushing relieved starters Hammond, Tapley, or Dosh and ranked as second-highest scorer on the team. Although he was relatively unknown at the beginning of the season, Cushing made a name for himself by offensive moves.

Both Cushing and Dosh received Honorable Mention on the all-city selection, and Cushing on the first all-tourney.

Again this year our bid for state was killed in the play-offs by East Phoenix, defending State Champions.

"Something for everyone."

The Varsity Track team had a reputation to keep up this year because of last year's record of 10-0. This year's team relied heavily on Seniors Steve Williams, Franklin Chambers and Larry Moon. Larry had broken the city pole vault record of 14'3" with his record of 14'5". The Rangers also had two top 880 men. Junior John Mills had a time of 2:01 and Mike Matz had a time of 2:02 in the half mile. Ralph Roda lead the weight events during the season. Other strong members of the team were Jeff Farmer, Jesse Parker, Rick Lucero, and Dave Wolter.

On the Junior Varsity level there were several outstanding performers. Stan Harbour headed the category during the 100, 220, and 440 yard dashes. The distance runners were Eric Grossman, Gerald Molinar, Stewart Wilson, and Tom Molley. The frosh team had Mike Neifie running both the 880 and mile run as Julius Campbell did the sprints. Roger Netherton was the frosh pole vaulter, who cleared over 10 feet.

A steady performance led Rincon gymnasts to their first win of the season as they toppled East Phoenix. This year Senior Brian Donahue and Junior Ric Blythe dominated the ring. Coach Charles Kline commented that both rings and high bar were events that guaranteed Rincon points, but predicted an average season for the team with a third in city and 5-6 in state. Although there were some tough competitors, he felt the league was very balanced this year. A weakness in the side horse seemed to be the biggest problem. Coach Kline was especially sorry to have the number one trampoline man, Dave Danford, leave.

Following the winning tradition of the last years, Ranger golfers had powered their way to an 8-2 record mid-way through the season. Returning lettermen Gary Bivings and Manny Valenzuela anchored the team this year with fellow starters giving the team strength and depth. Coach Joe Young wouldn't predict how the team would place, but felt the team is as strong as last year's. He stated that the league had perhaps five teams of state caliber and Rincon's chances seemed better at every practice session.

Having splashed past their opener with Palo Verde, Rincon tankmen looked forward to a strong season for '72. Coach Paul Kershner was optimistic and predicted an 8-2 record, but seemed worried about Sahuaro. Anchoring the team this season were co-captains Don Magee and Albert LeCocq, both seniors this year. In the sprints Jeff Anderson and Danny Hoskins were both strong swimmers and candidates for state competition. Coach Kershner surmised that this team would reach at least a third in the state and hoped to sneak into first place position, surpassing last year's fifth place.

Rincon's Varsity Baseball team opened the season against Pueblo, but were upset 4-2 for their first loss of the season. Rincon then faced Central from Phoenix and pitcher Gary Savlov held the Central Baseball team to two runs as Rincon won 9-2. Rincon succeeded in winning its next two games, beating Palo Verde and Salpointe. The Ranger's following game against Catalina was called because of darkness. Catalina came out the victor with a 5-4 decision. The early season record was 5-3 after eight games.

Far Right: Jim Shea awaits the crack of the starter's gun to begin to the first leg of the mile relay. Right: Dan Roads tucks his legs under and gets ready to stretch out for distance in the long jump. Dan was a member of the 440 yard relay team.

"The J.V. Baseball team had better potential this year than the J.V. Baseball team did last year," commented Coach Don Holley. Rincon started their season with a 10-0 decision over Pueblo and had high hopes for the city championship. The team's batting average after six games was 3.44 with some outstanding players on this year's team being Dan Smith, Steve Netherton, Danny Valenzuela and Greg Osborne.

This year the Freshmen Baseball team didn't fare quite as well as was expected at the beginning of the season. Their first game was with Tucson High who came out on top with a final score of 6-5. The Baby Rangers, however, made a comeback by winning their next game at Amphi with a 3-2 score. Outstanding players on the team were David Pain, Peter Villescusa, and John Riesgo.

After recovering from the loss of Bill Tannenbaum, the Rincon netters jelled and fought their way to an 8-1 season; an undisputed second place in the city. Coach Louis Good reflected that he felt confident on at least a 13-3 record. Commenting on the loss of Tannenbaum, he seemed unworried as Bill had played in only one meet before he left this season. Coach Good went to Al Grabb and Jim Allin for single spots for state and groomed Bobby Grabb and Bill Present to play doubles events. The team's power was in depth as all of the state hopefuls were underclassmen.

This year the Girls' P.E. Department offered a variety of sports to participate in. These sports were played by girls in the GRA organization and by boys and girls in Intramural Sports Program. The GRA classes began after school while the Intramural classes were held during lunch and after school.

Volleyball, a sport with many girls involved in it, played games against different high school teams around the state. The team, known for its teamwork, tied with Catalina in the Divisionals. This sport was also played in the Intramurals.

Jeanette Christianson heads the list as the top all-around girl on the Gymnastics team. This team, which practices after school, participated in three meets during March, in which they lost one and won two. Also, noted for their performances are Cindi Bare on the bars and Debbie Brown in Floor Ex.

Although Girls' Track had an upset about practices in the beginning of the year, the girls performed well under the sponsorship of Miss Joan Pepper. The team won two meets and tied for one with Cholla High. Achievements of the season were record-breakers Nancy Shea who bettered her 150 yard dash time one tenth of a second to 11.4, Connie Richardson who thrust the shotput 34 feet and Celia Cruz who hurled the discus 108 feet.

At the start of the season, girls on the Cross Country team were often seen running long stretches around the Rincon desert. The team, with standouts Diana Ball, Irene Stoss and Karen Moon have won two meets and lost one.

Putting the nets to good use was the tennis team for two hours after school. In their matches against Tucson schools, these twelve girls have received an outstanding reputation for effort.

Basketball directed by Miss Wiggins had a successful season with many girls joining to play. Tournaments with other high schools highlighted the basketball season.

Rincon's Language Clubs try to promote a better understanding of the language, customs, and people of their representative countries.

El Club Rinconette, the Spanish Club, is dedicated to furthering the students' knowledge of the Spanish-Mexican culture. Their projects have included Homecoming Dance, a float for the Rodeo Parade and a trip to Nogales to view a bullfight. The club also had a potluck Mexican dinner and made a field trip to La Fiesta de la Placita.

The only club with a motto is Societas Romana, the Latin Club. Their motto is, "Contendese, Petere, Invenire, et non Cedere," which means, "To strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield." This club has been in existance since Rincon opened. They have sponsored Rodeo Parade entries and several successful mixers.

La Cercle des Fleures de Lis held many fund raising events this year, including Saturday afternoon carwashes. The French Club was also sponsor of a Crepe party, a daisy-caramel apple sale and a French dinner.

Bake sales, car washes, and other money raising projects were held by the Ski Club. The funds were used for ski trips to Sunrise ski slope in the White Mountains. Speakers at their monthly meeting included Vance Campbell, from The Ski Hause, and Mr. Firth, Mount Lemmon Ski Patrol representative.

Human Relations Club's purpose was to help people meet and get along with other people. Many club members were tutors for second, third, and sixth graders at Carillo School. The club gave a Christmas and a Valentine party for the mentally retarded, at Rillito West.

Bi-Chem-Phy took trips to the U of A Medical Center and other places of scientific interest. The club's main purpose is to promote an interest in science among the students. Terry Trammel, one of the outstanding members, won first prize at the Science Fair and won a Junior Academy of Science first prize.

The Student Committee Opposed to the Pollution of the Environment, S.C.O.P.E., was initiated in May, 1970. The club gives support to pr programs protecting our environment. They sponsor the ecology newspaper, Ecologia, and Earth Week.

Rincon's Future Teachers of America Club has been in existance since the school opened. The club helps students to learn about the teaching profession, it's opportunities and responsibilities.

"Developing future leadership for marketing and distribution" is the motto of Rincon's Distributive Education Clubs of America Chapter. These students act as a service club for the national Distributive Education program.

Choraliers, A Chorale, Mixed Choir, Choralettes, and Beginning Boys and Girls Choirs are all a part of the music department.
Auditions are required to enter the top groups. All choirs hold concerts during the year, and they sell candy bars and sponsor the annual Spaghetti Dinner. These funds were used to finance trips throughout the state.

The orchestra gave concerts at Rincon and at several junior high schools. Students were taught orchestral techniques and allowed to exhibit their accomplishments in public.

The ECHO has been Rincon's newspaper for fourteen years. It was awarded as All-American rating by the National Scholastic Press Association for the past two years.

Girls' League helped promote spirit at Rincon. The club sponsored Spirit Week and Twirp this year. They also made locker covers for the school teams and sponsored speakers from Planned Parenthood, Copy Cat, and a handwriting analyst.

Mike Boys and Miss Virginia Romero, the new advisor, were added to the pep squad this year. The Cheerleaders and Songleaders goal was to promote spirit at football and basketball games, and at Pep Assemblies.

The Primaveras' interest was to express their feelings through dance and movement. They gave several concerts during the year.

Leadership Corps finished their second year of aiding the Girl's P.E. classes. Club members were junior and senior girls who are outstanding in physical education, and had a desire to gain leadership experience. The Corps' project this year was running a fitness test to qualify girls for the President badge for physical fitness.

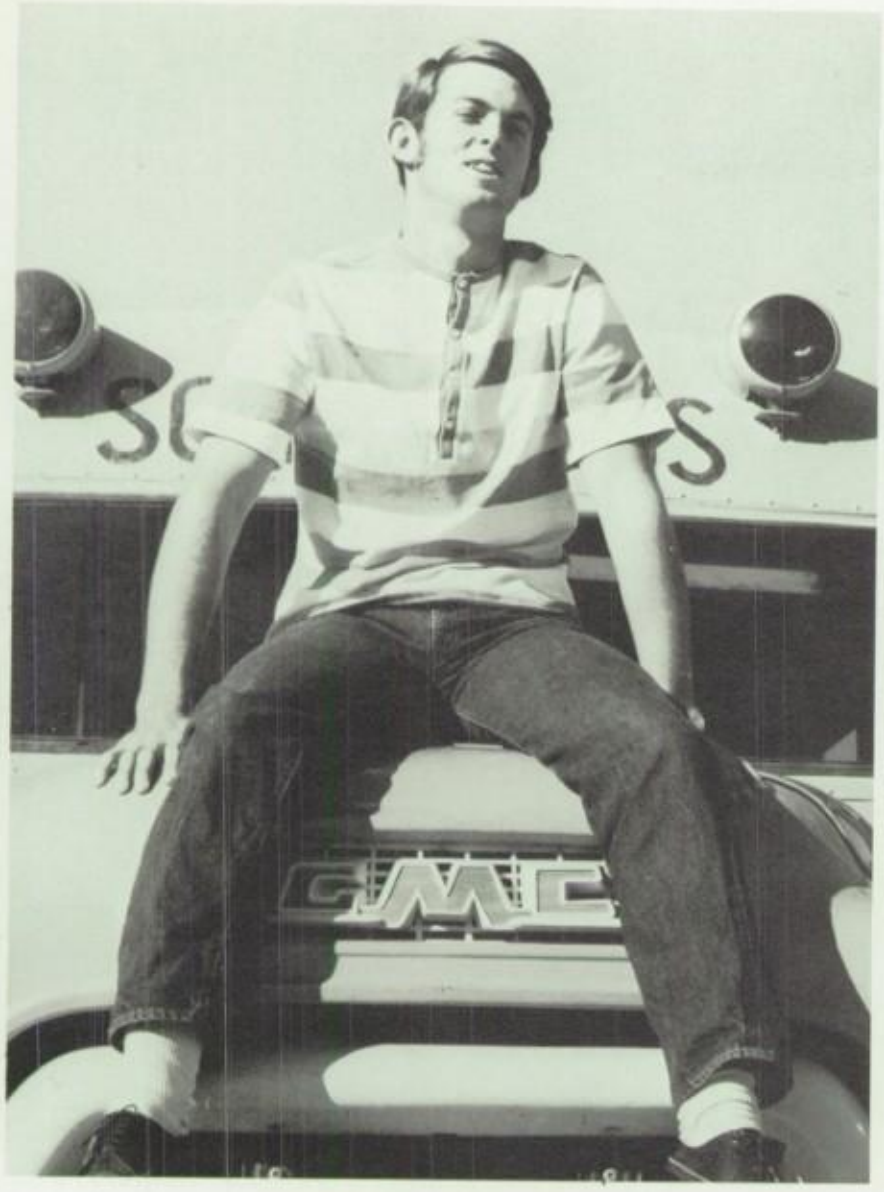
"Vene, Vide, Vici!"

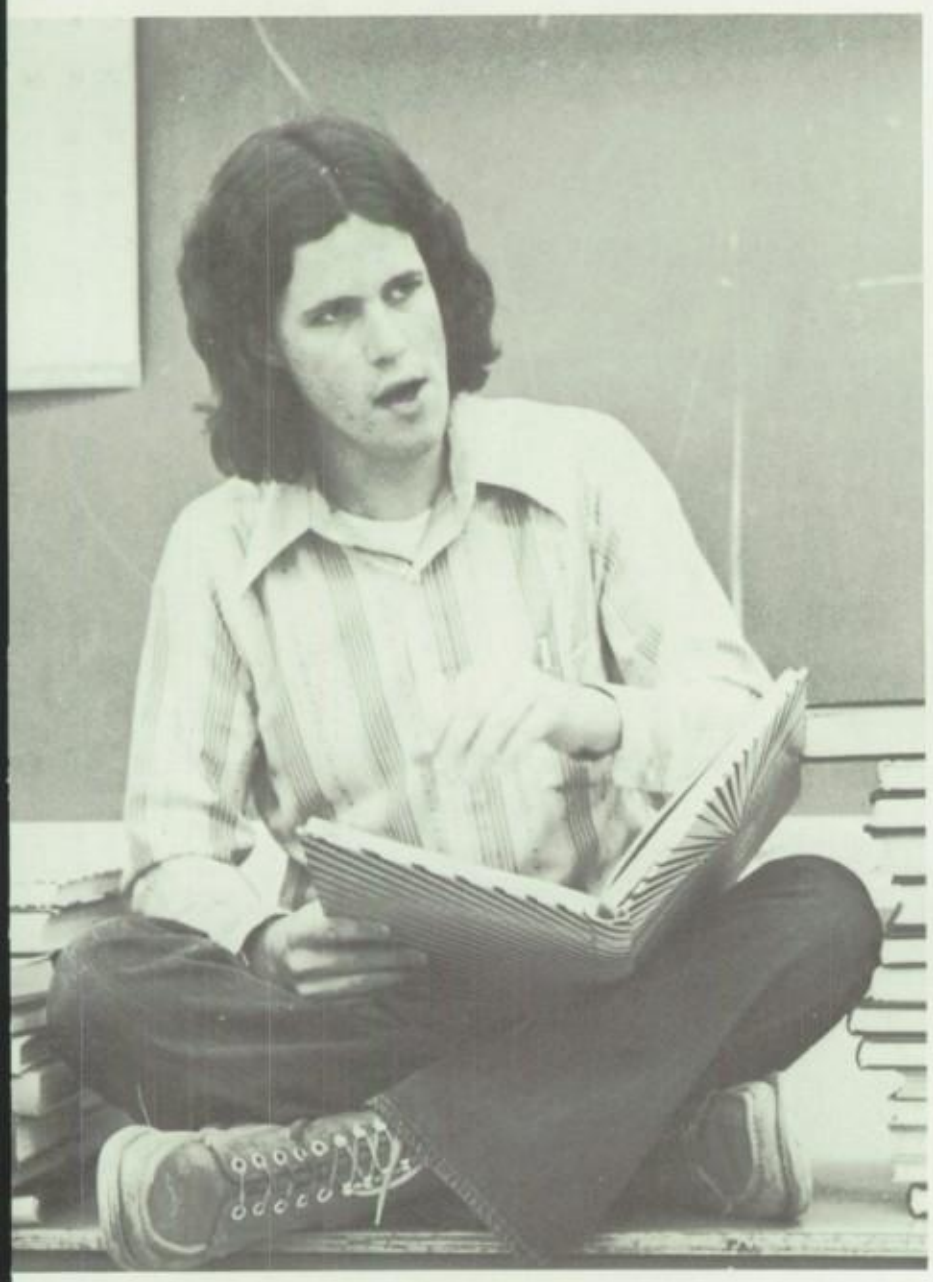
Student



Left: Well known at Rincon and around Tucson for their musical talents are fifth rated Martha Morse and third Anna Horton. Anna sings in A Chorale, teaches piano and accompanies the Choraliers. Martha gives many recitals and has received much recognition for her efforts. Above Left: Ron Carr, second in his class, is known for his sense of humor. His time is spent telling jokes and shaggy dog stories, as well as playing varsity baseball. Above: Number four Jennifer Barber displays much ability in oral interpretation and speech. Special interests include Prima Veras and Spanish.

Above: Excelling in math and science, Barb Whitley graduated at semester with honors that placed her fourth in her class. A recipient of a four year, full scholarship to the U of A, Barb likes to play the guitar. Above Right: Ray Thurman works at Wood Brothers Lumber Company in addition to his studies, which made him an outstanding fifth in the Class of '72. Currently Ray is developing an interest in computers. Right: Seen on the Mt. Lemmon slopes almost as often as at school is John Bradel, the number six man. A participant in Young Life events, John was President of the Ski Club.

Left: Karen Fowler, tied for sixth honors, sings in A Chorale concerts and serves as choir librarian. A long time member of the Rincon Red Cross, she participates in many of the club's projects. Below Left: Greg Gillette is best known to students as a practical joker. Science, especially Physics, is Greg's favorite subject. Holding the seventh place in his class, Greg belongs to the Honor Society. Below: Cinderella Leslie Talmage manages to keep tied for sixth and still have time for other things. Leslie likes photography and being Senior Class Vice-President.



"Don't you just hate smart people . . ."

Right: Being tied for tenth requires lots of study. Leslie Hirsh finds Prima Veras relaxing, however. Below Right: John Stufflebean's favorite subjects include physics and calculus. When the creative urge strikes, John practices the piano or organ. Student Body President and number nine, Dale Ash works at Lucky Wishbone, but finds plenty of time to play with puppy, Shea-Shea-Ne.

Below Left: The eighth place in the graduating class of '72 is Mary Fellows, who feels most at home in the casual environment. Mary enjoys planting, gardening, and, in general, nature. Left: National Honor Society students have the priviledge of hearing speakers from colleges and civic groups from time to time. Here, a member of the Devil's Advocates talks about organizations at the Arizona State University.

PEOPLE

"The class officers are doing a lot with what they have to work with."

Student

heavy.

what's your problem?

one more time . . .

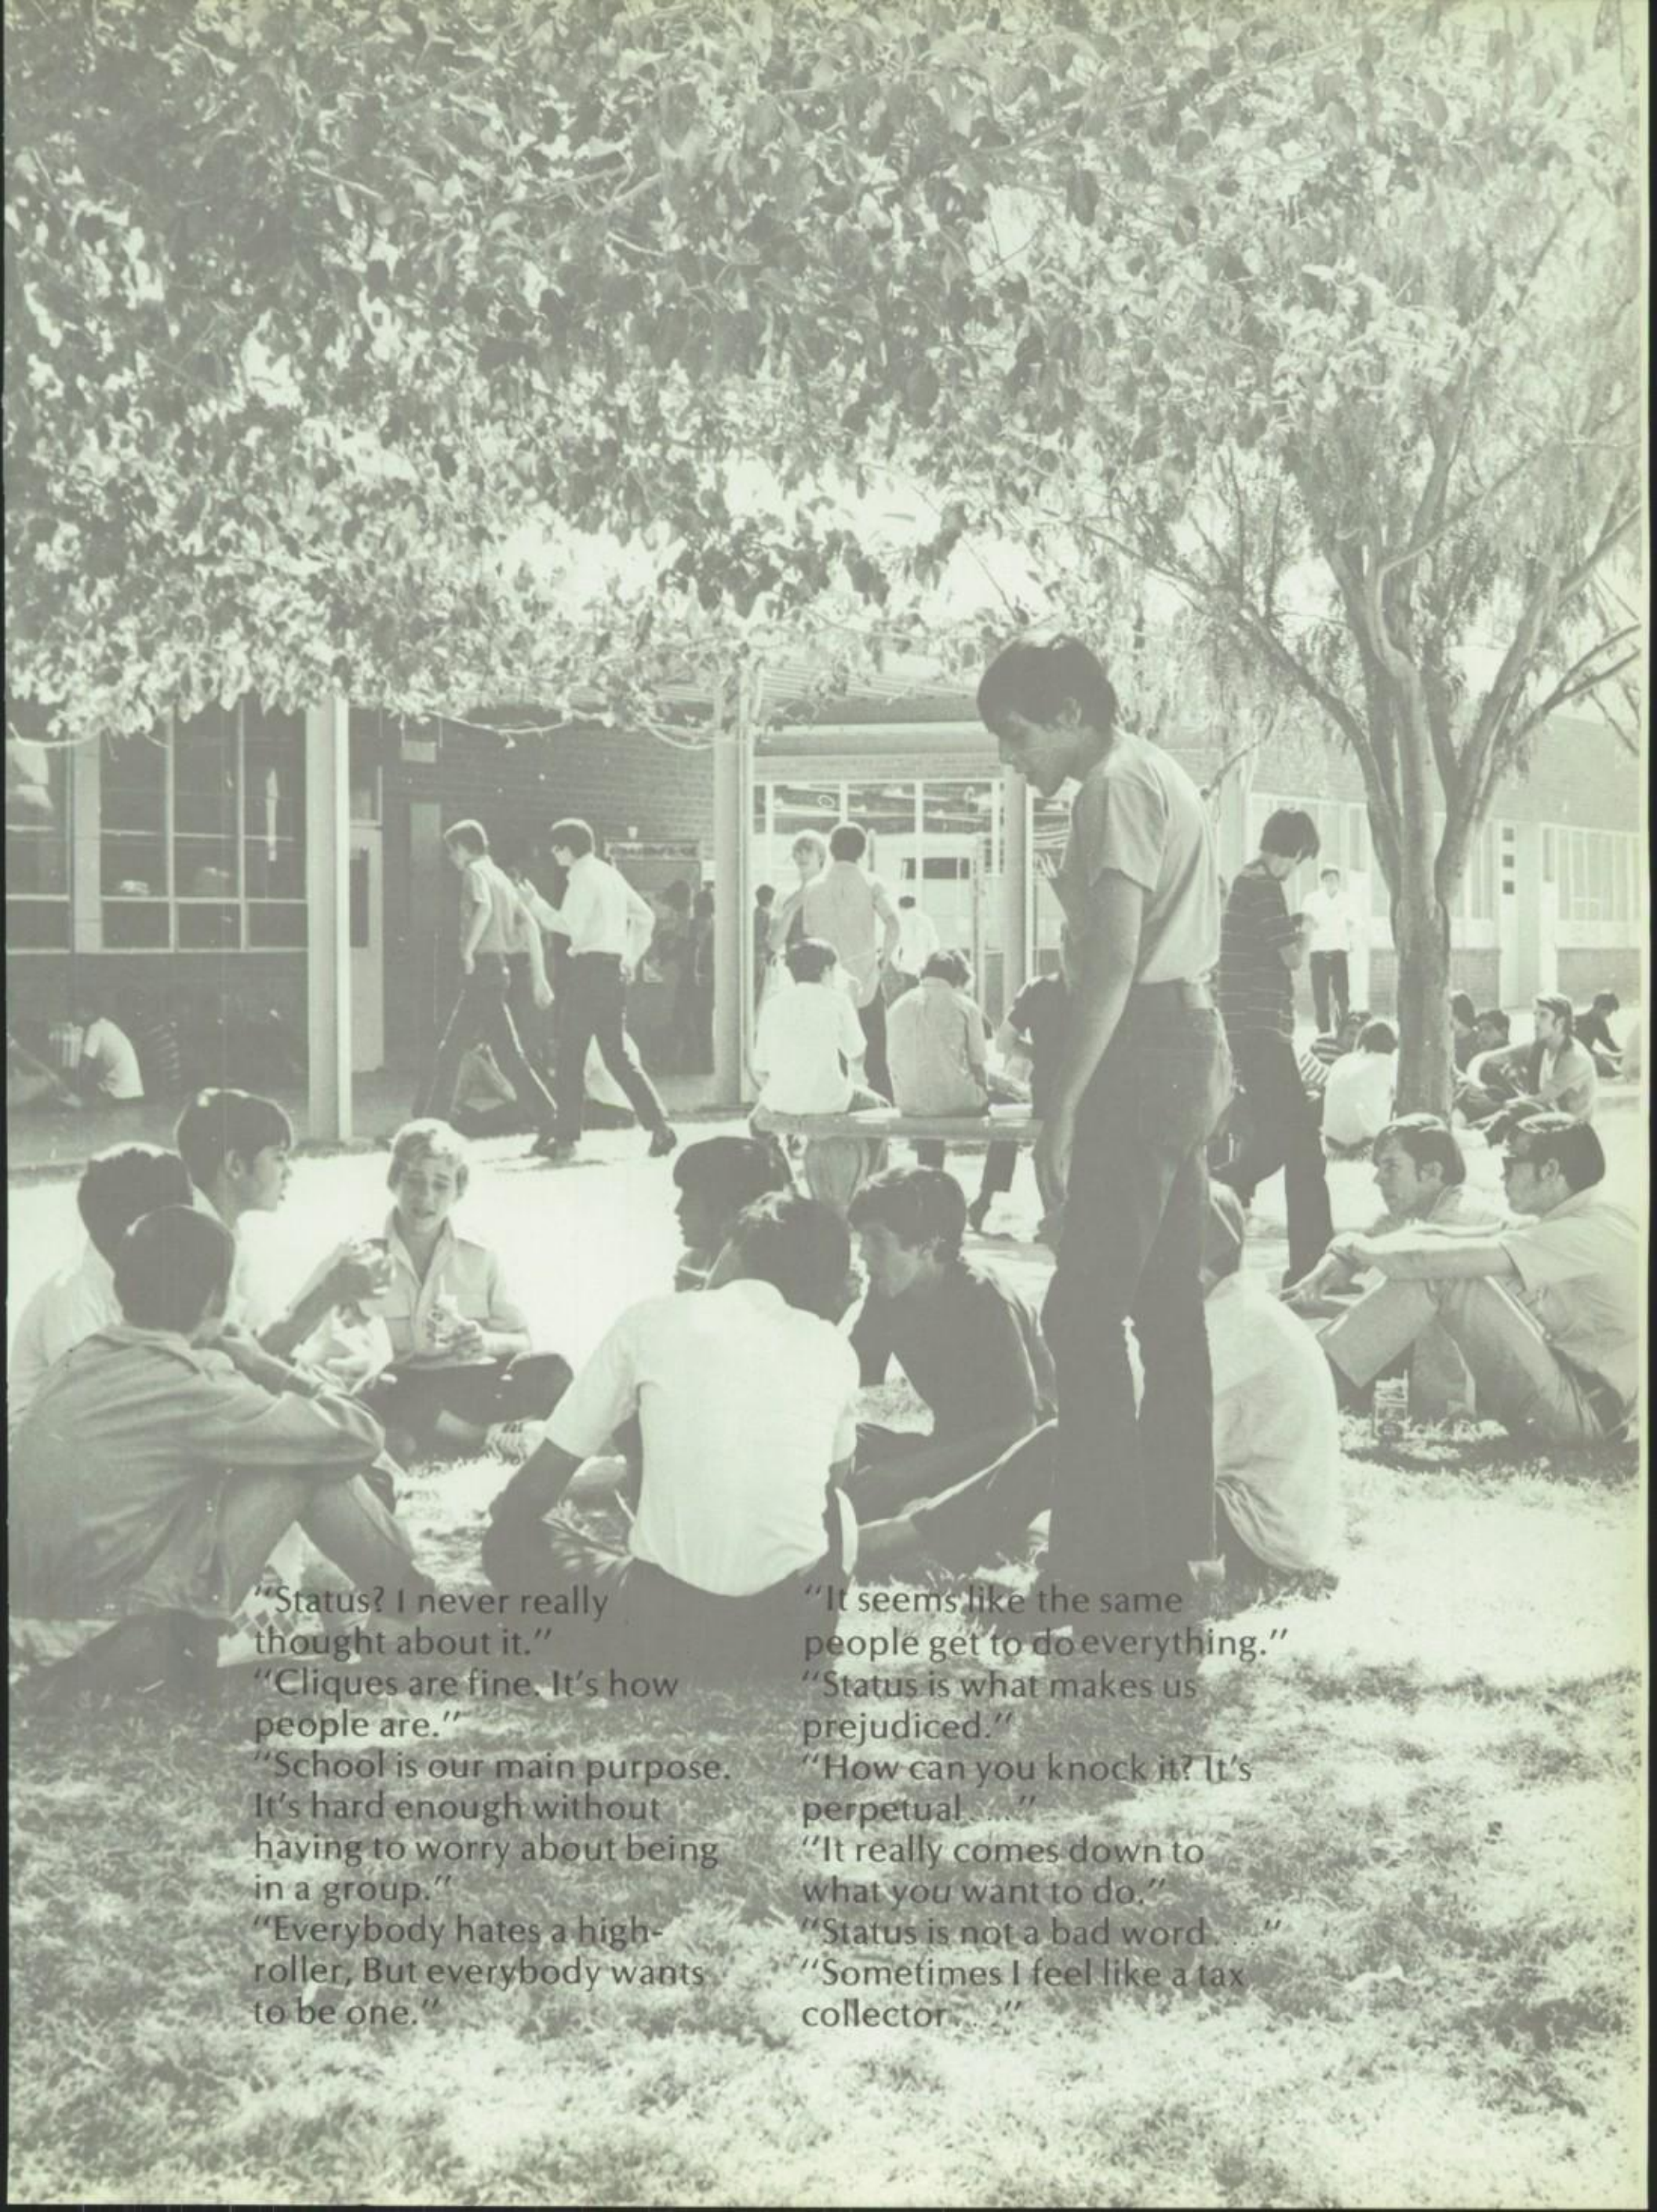
you too, huh?

Whats'a rush?

okay bye.



"Status? I never really thought about it."
"Cliques are fine. It's how people are."
"School is our main purpose. It's hard enough without having to worry about being in a group."
"Everybody hates a high-roller, But everybody wants to be one."

"It seems like the same people get to do everything."
"Status is what makes us prejudiced."
"How can you knock it? It's perpetual ...."
"It really comes down to what you want to do."
"Status is not a bad word. . ."
"Sometimes I feel like a tax collector. . ."

The absence of chairs on the Senior Patio is certainly going to bring this class together.

Right: Carol Hjerpe, President, listens attentively to discussion about a possible Sophomore class assembly. Above: John Sivo, Harrie Ann Grossman, and Randy Fishburn find themselves in a serious discussion.

"The class of '74 is definately the best."

Sophomore student

Joanne
Well here we are; the greatest class there ever was the class of 1974. (Do you think we'll make it.) The way our classes have been going, I don't see how they could get weirder, but who knows. This year was something else, but you'll see something else all over again if you turn to page 116

Right: Faced with one of the many issues at Rincon, Principal Mr. George McConnell, emphasizes his viewpoint on freedom of the students. Mr. McConnell, just beginning his first full year here, finds there are numerous details and problems to be solved. Below: Assistant Principals Mr. Lee Carey and Mr. Hall Stubbs consult each other on Brenda Adams and Charlotte Brower's questions about the upcoming dance. Mr. Carey is in charge of student activities and events, while Mr. Stubbs bridges the gap between the administration and the faculty.

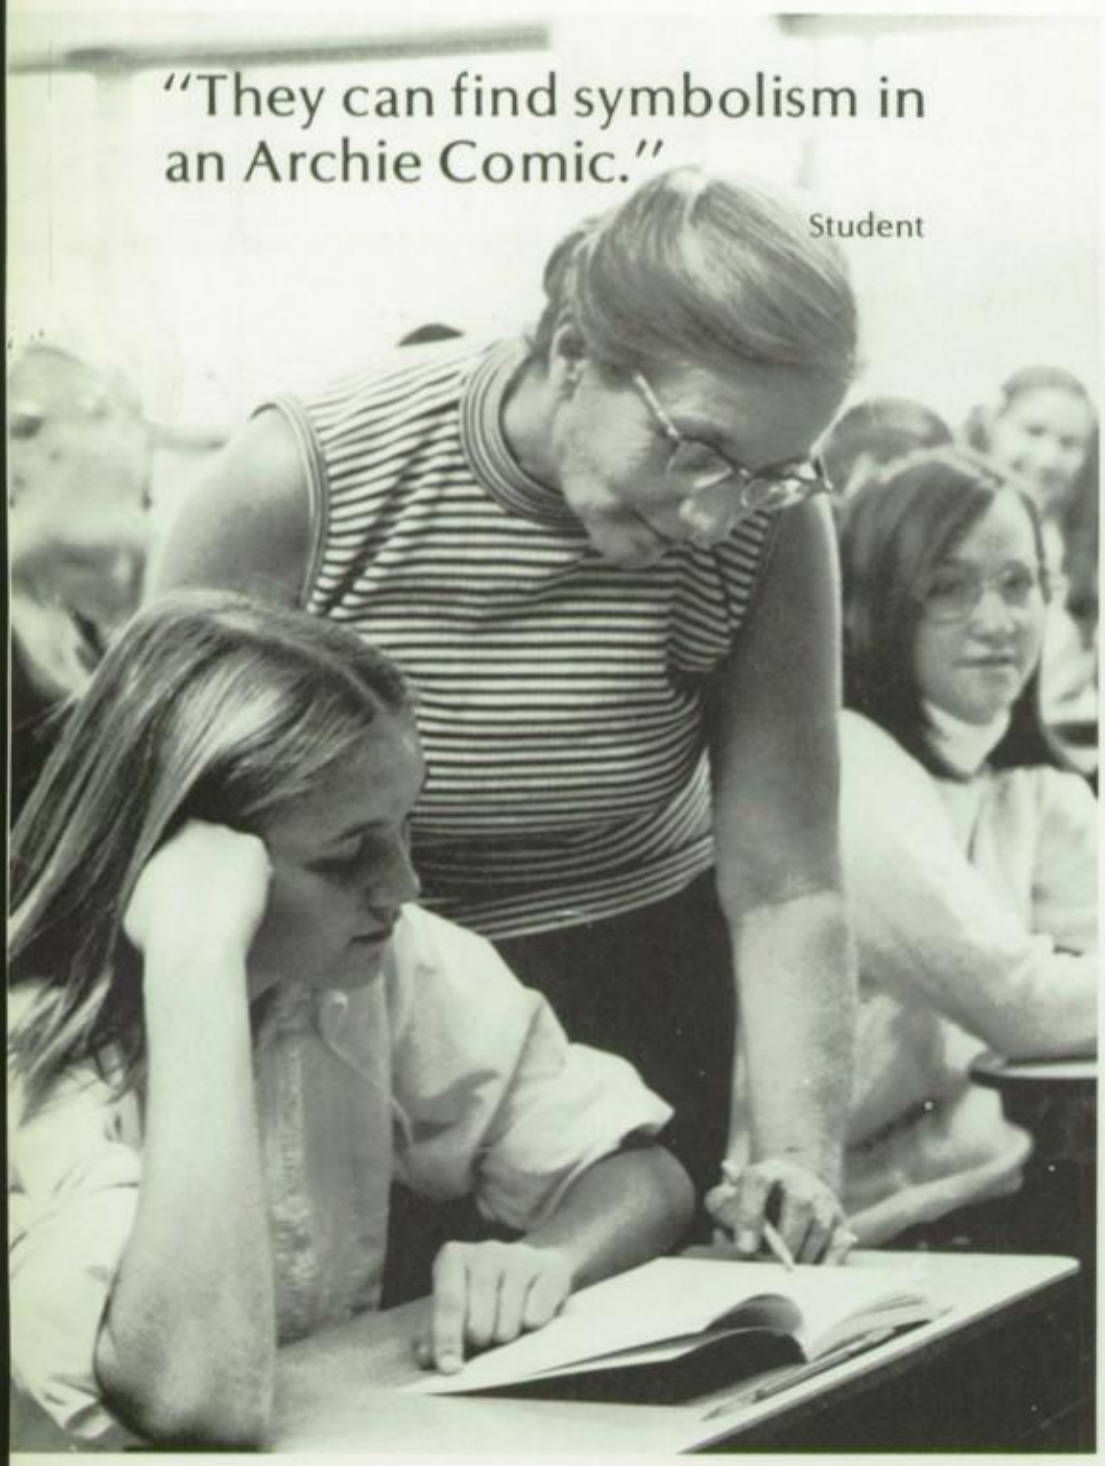
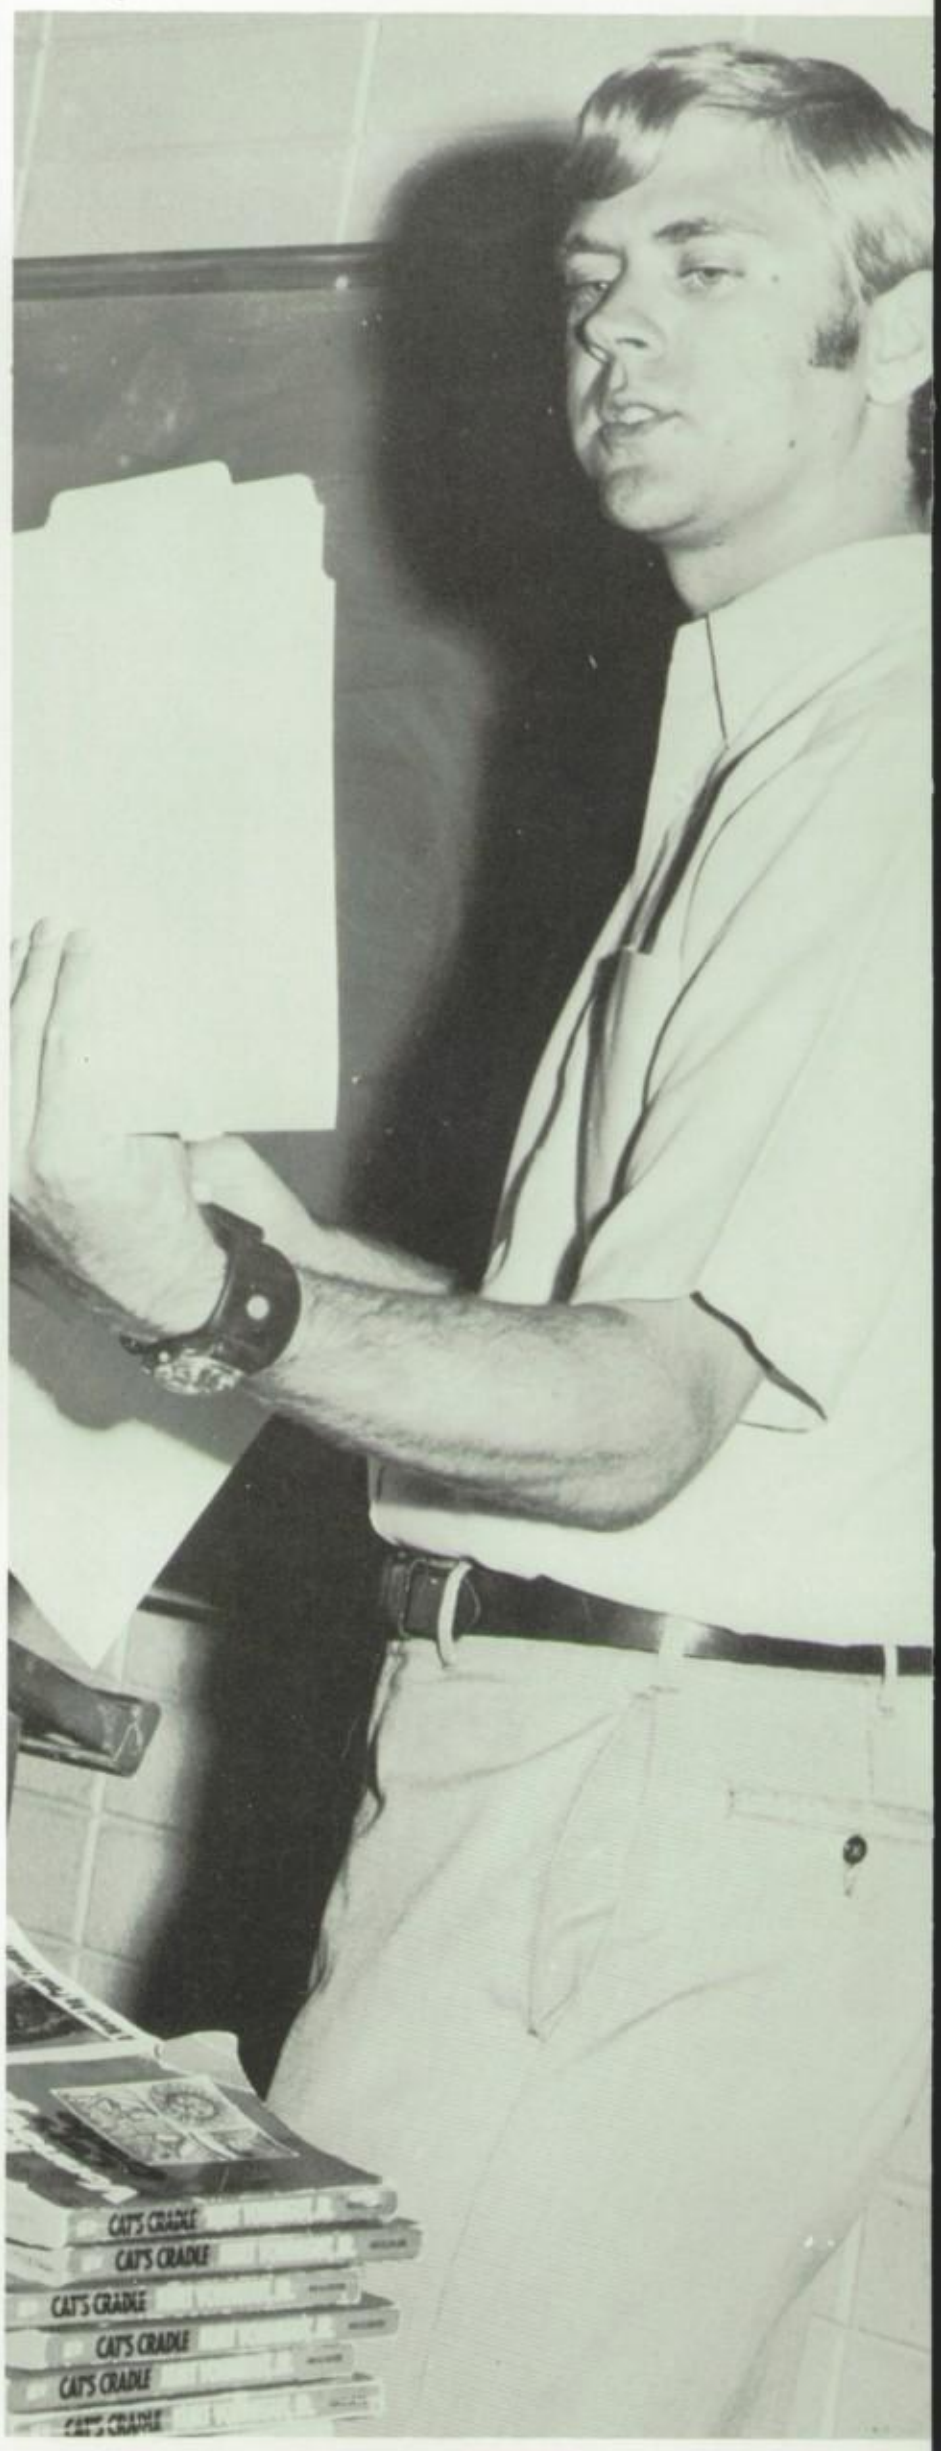
Above: While reaching in the jar for an energizing piece of candy, Registrar's Secretary Mrs. Johnson concentrates on registration cards for new students. Right: Mrs. Mahacek, head secretary in the Attendance Office, writes down an absent student's name. From 7:30 until 8:30 the phone steadily rings with parents reporting students who are absent.

Left: Mrs. Pasquale, librarian, demonstrates to Don Vine that cataloguing books is not really hard. Along with Mrs. Pasquale, Mr. Hearn and Mrs. Hessemer help to run the library. Below Left: Looking both astonished and interested, Barbara Herron discovers from Mrs. Pasquale that the library does have more than books. Some of the many aids the library contains are a pamphlet file, audio-visual aids and periodicals. Below: Kathy Quesnel receives much needed assistance in finding an assigned paperback from librarian Mrs. Hessemer. Helping students and, at times, silencing them are a few of the jobs she does for Rincon.





Right: Mr. Phil Varney demonstrates the many uses of manila folders to his Senior English class. Above: Mary Fellows finds what Mrs. Jean Christison can be surprisingly helpful in literature interpretation. Far Right: In their Sophomore English class, Susan Weitzel and Don Simmons, who appear to be in a state of disbelief, listen while Mrs. Hansen contradicts a point made previously about a controversial novel.

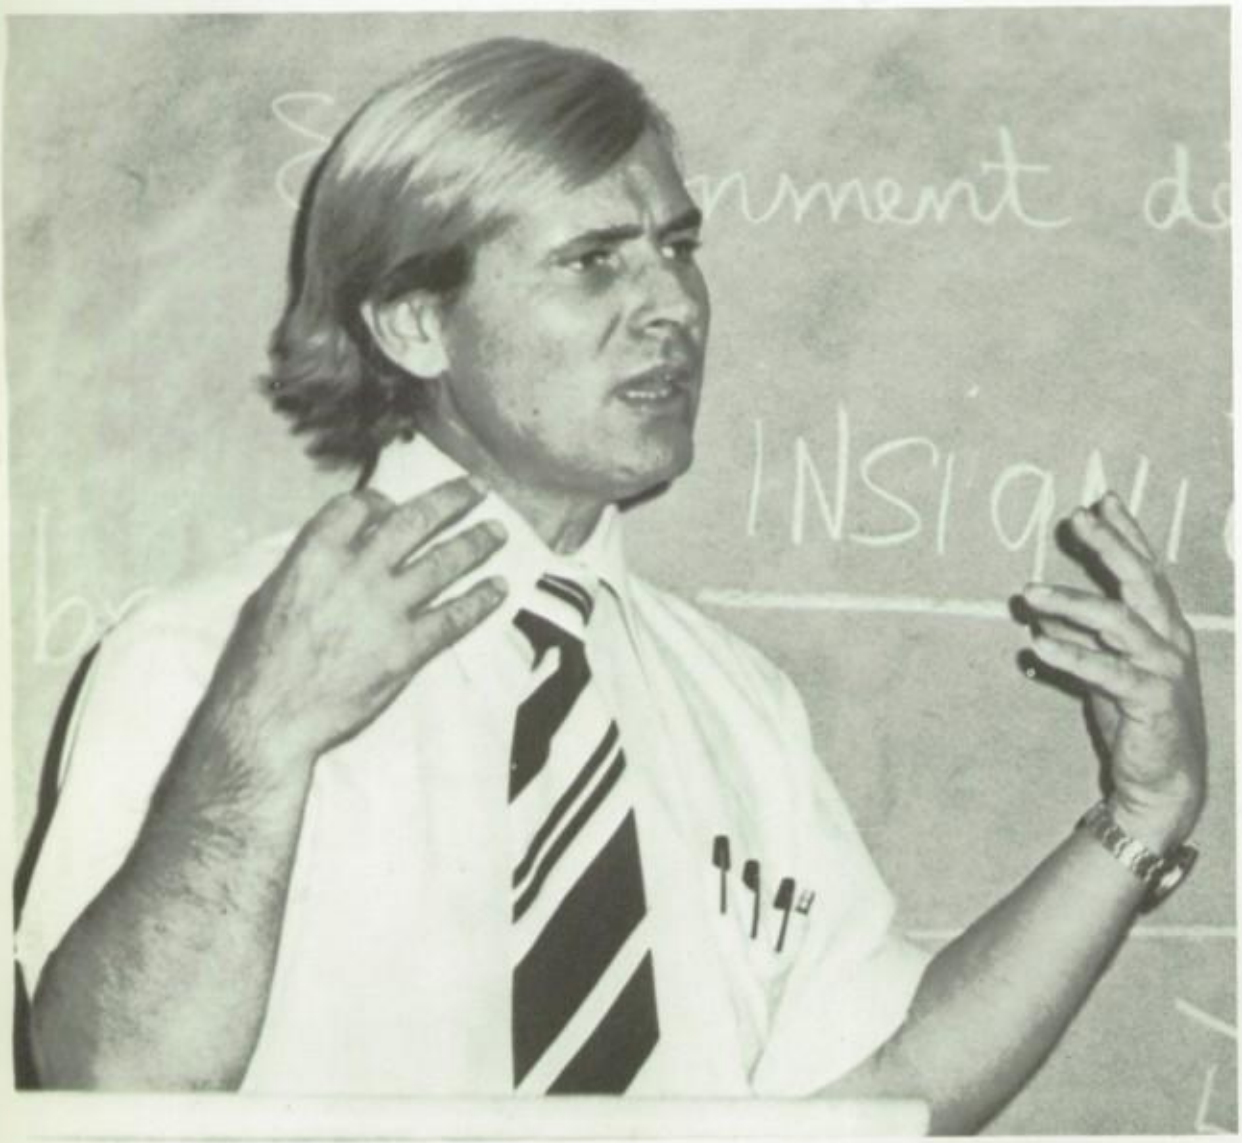
Mr. Morris Schmeider | Miss Lois Sorrell | Mr. George Stroud



Far Right: American Problems and History teacher Mr. George Stroud employs gestures to emphasize his viewpoint on environmental ecology today. Center: Mrs. Helen Mount finds that fingers can be valuable teaching tools and calculators as she enumerates the artists of the Rococo period. Right: "Buenas Tardes!" exclaims Spanish instructor Mr. Charles Farrell to a first year class learning conversational dialogue and basic grammar.

Mr. Vincent Acosta, Spanish 1 and 7-CL, Advanced Placement Committee, Spanish Club sponsor, Department Chairman, Sophomore class co-sponsor. Below Left: Mr. Zastrow tries hard to interpret a rather confusing algebra problem to a dazed John Parker. As two courses in mathematics are required for graduation, students have a choice of seven different classes to take. Right: Mr. Dobosh explains and diagrams a formula for scaling to his Physical Science class. This class covers varied subjects including nuclear energy and environmental problems. Below Right: Attempting to plant the equation of density into his students minds, Earth Science teacher, Mr. Whitaker, patiently repeats it one more time. Because Earth Science is so popular with students this year, Mr. Vesley also instructs classes.

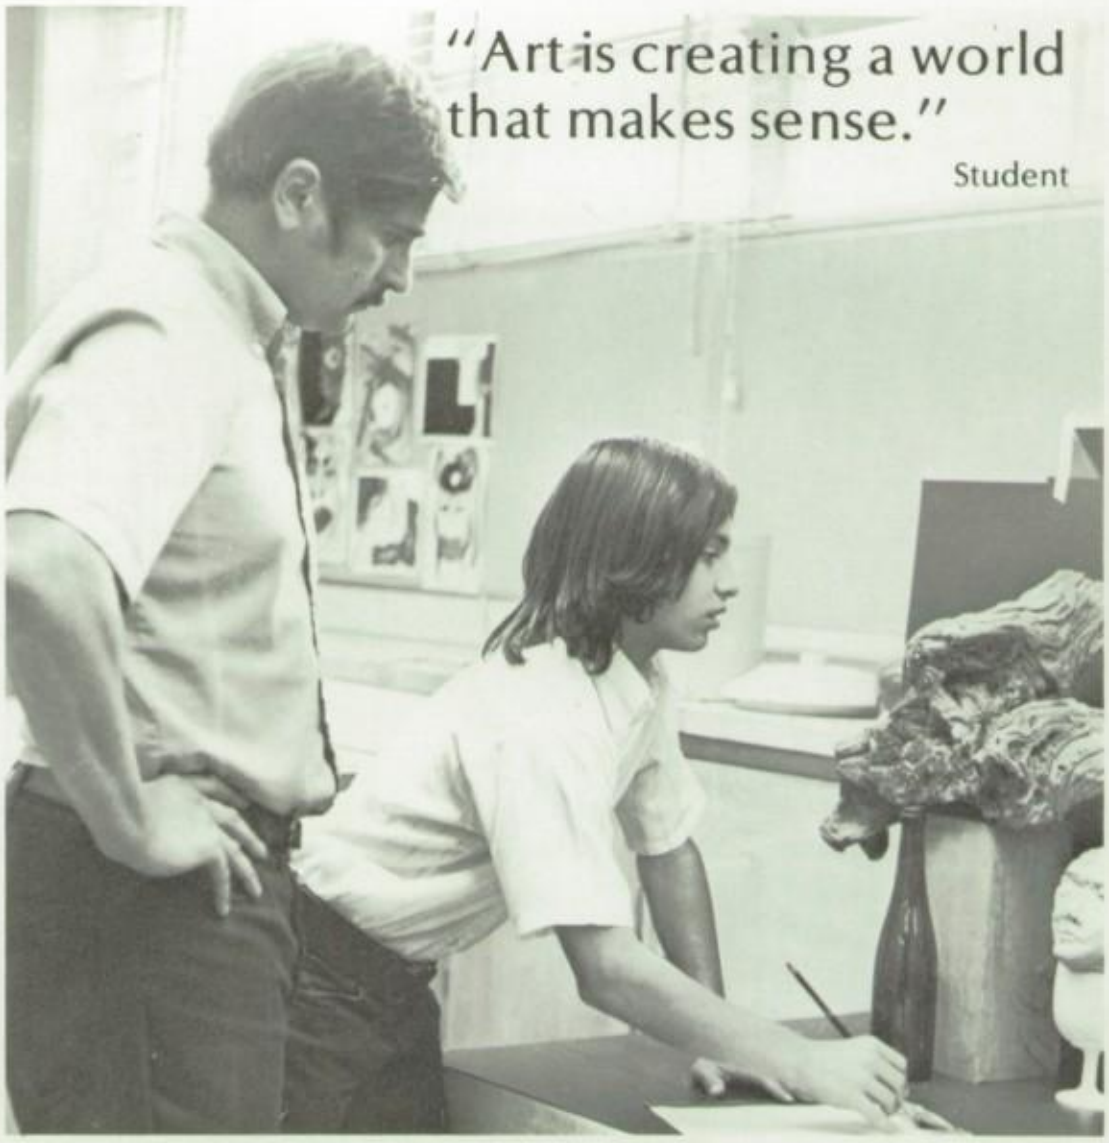
Right: Under the eerie illumination of fluorescent lights, Mr. Louis Tassi, Graphic Arts teacher, studies a color separation. Above: Now we know what you do in there! Photography teacher Mr. Orval Northam treats hard workers to pizza after a work session.



"Art is creating a world that makes sense."

Student

Right: Art Fiello studies various media and, under the direction of instructor Mr. Wolfe, attempts to express himself through his own creation. Below: Advanced art classes are exceedingly popular with students this year. Miss Misto points out one example of artistic talent as Cathie Dunlap and Grace Powers look for the gifted person.

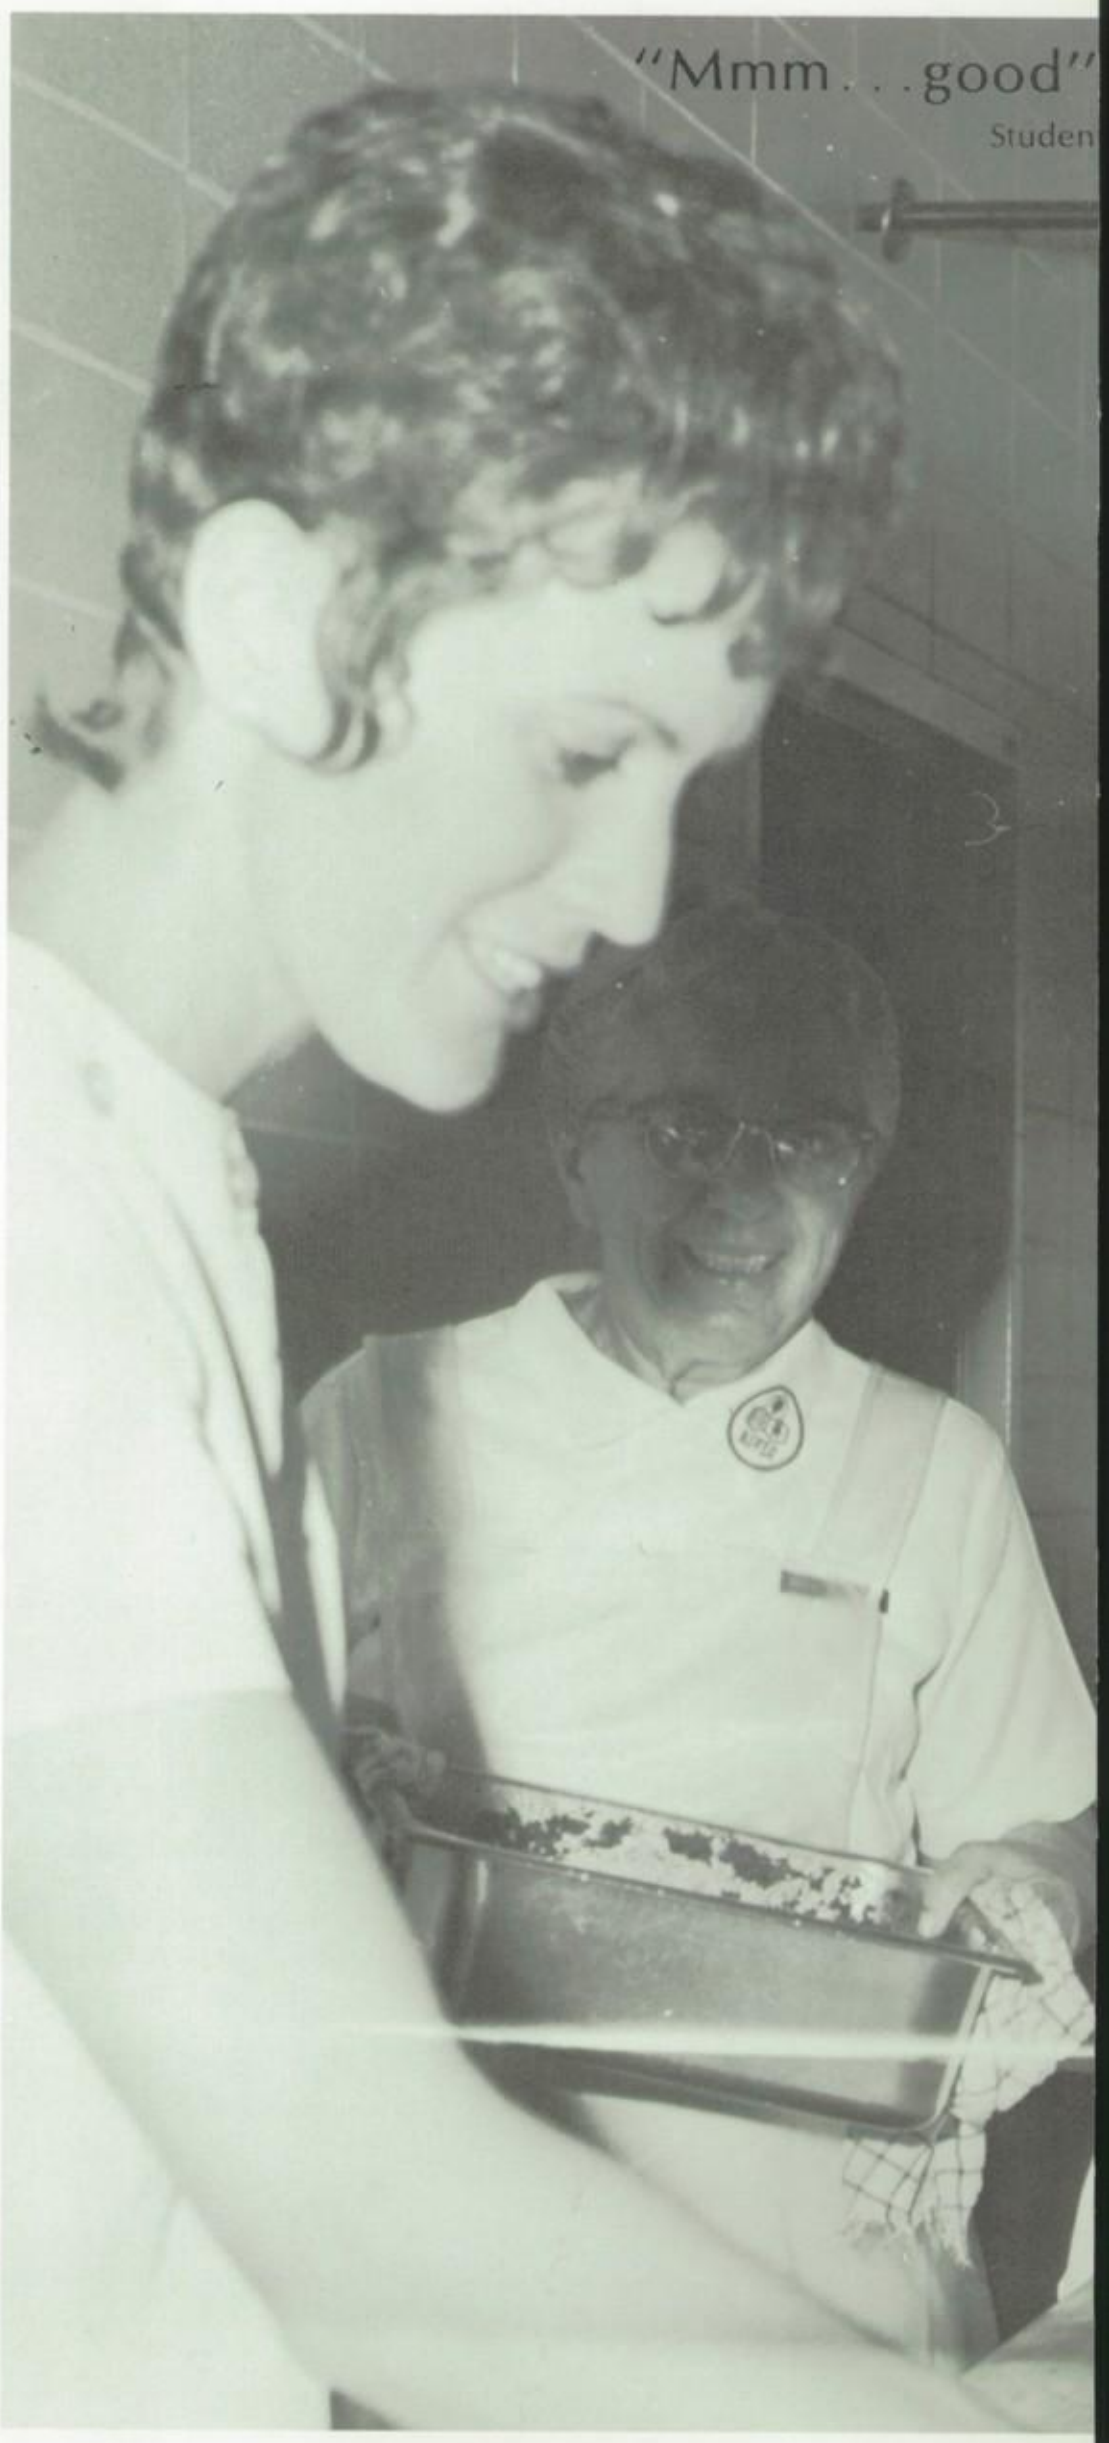
Ed., Disciplinary Procedures Committee, Pep Squad Sponsor; Miss Grace Wiggins, Phy., Ed., Awards, Scholarships, Honor Assemblies Committee, Girls' Recreation Association Club Sponsor, Chairman of Girls' P.E. Dept., Volleyball Coach.

Left: Heather Mauch and P.E. teacher Miss Nona Edwards relive the exciting sounds of a volleyball game via tape recorder. Miss Edwards is new to the Girls' P.E. Department along with two other instructors, Mrs. Judy Hoefer and Miss Virginia Romero.



Right: Smiling gaily, Mrs. Patton and Mrs. Rodgers prepare hot lunches during second period lunch. They are two of the five cafeteria personnel that serve hot lunches every day. Rincon's hot lunch program came into being at the beginning of last year and has turned out to be quite a success with the students. Above Right: Captured in one of his rare public appearences at home football games is Alberto Valenzuela, better known as Big Al. Picking up yard markers at the end of a game, this forgotten man handles the issuance of sports uniforms. Everyone from the lowest freshman to the biggest starter is wary of this man's wrath against the player who loses even one sock. Far Right: Have you ever watched grass grow for a living? Do you have to pick up the pieces and start over again every day? Such is the lot of Robert Young, always keeping Rincon clean and neat.

As times change so must the school. The administration has a difficult position to maintain. Coping with the problems of liberal students and less liberal parents makes a full-time job trying to keep all happy.

The Guidance Department expanded the programs focused at college-bound students. Along with speakers from colleges and information tapes in the library, T-3 was added as a place where any and all questions could be answered about college. Books, pamphlets and counselors were made available to everyone interested.

For the third year, the English department has had the Senior Rotation Classes. Mr. Mackey, Mrs. Christison, Mrs. Hollander and Miss Kalil were the teachers of these Rotation Classes.

Along with the choice of taking Anthropology, Economics, Sociology or Psychology for one semester, Mr. Davis tried a new approach to the semester of U.S. Government. Getting out of the classroom and moving into different facets of City Government was a better and more interesting way of teaching.

Data Processing introduced students to the more complicated side of business mathematics. In addition to the regular math classes. students were taught skill in merchandising and practical buying in Consumers Math.

Stricter athletic policies constituted a new approach towards Boy's P.E. The coaches were responsive and interested, the equipment better, and the classes larger and exciting.

Girl's P.E. had many changes this year with the loss of three coaches and the addition of two. Because Leadership Corps has been so successful, individual attention in the P.E. classes has been increased one hundred percent and has made a better class.

Thanks to the happy ground crew, engineers, and cafeteria staff, Rincon Rangers enjoy a clean, well-fed, sparkling atmosphere in which all can be proud to be a part.

When the books stop falling,
And the locker doors stop clanging,
All I can hear are the silent echos
Of footsteps long gone.
I'll remember the snow.
Those glorious days of white.
I remember thinking some little
Kids have never seen snow
And some nurseryman is going to
Make a mint come spring.
Those too few days.
Could it be we were snow-mad
Or just snow-happy?

Joanne: Howdy! We sure have done a lot of weird things this year, just like always. Have fun. Keep getting to know you this year. You're a lot of fun, there's only one thing about you that I don't care for much. That is that you never ~~ask~~ get your homework done. Will you please try to stay well next year. Since you and I have got just about the same classes (I'm not in one of my classes next year! at least one). I know you know that of course I have a need for math in College. That course should be very interesting (I hope you were able to read and understand that sentence) Geometry. Like for instance, do you remember when Mr. Howell was telling us about the solid object. Then he looked like he was going to take a minute or two and cut out the solid object. Then he took it. But there were all of those days that we couldn't remember how to work a problem so we had to turn around and ask Travis Lee. I sure do wish Frank would take Algebra 3 with us. We need him. Agreed? Anyway I'm sure have fun starting at Kissing me in just revenge for calling me King Arthur again. If you think that is where it ends just turn to page 100. Love

I Love You!
(Have a Christmas Day!)

Joanne,

Well its been fun sharing a class with you again. Well hope to have another class with you next year.

See you

Jill Barsch

Joanne, (excuse me) you certainly are a lucky person I can't spell your name. I hope you have a Merry Christmas and a great new year next year. I'll be a senior for the rest of your life.

your friend
Ellen.

Dear Jo Anne,

You are a lousy crazy-8 player. In the years to come, I wish you better luck. - Really you are as sweet girl and I am glad I got to eat lunch with you this semester. You are a pal in everything including Track, etc....

Stay the way you are now and Stay well.

Your friend

Sandi Dunne

Joanne
even though I don't know you too well
it was fun having you in Geometry and Drivers Education. Well have fun this summer.

Love
Steve

Jo Ann,
I think that you have really enjoyed (?) this year. I have enjoyed our friendship.
Thanks,
Julie C.

Joann,
I'm glad I got to know
you. I'm also glad I got to see your boyfriend have fun over the summer.
maryanne

Joann,
I'm glad I met
you in Track and Spring... for a lot of "Business Letters"
Ha.
Kayl

Don't do Ann,
but the Remember
Ours Your Classes
Have OF the always
Take a Enjoy the text.
